

Role Summary

Role: Building Surveyor

Salary: £25,000 - £45,000 per year depending on experience

Location: Hybrid with home working or in our Kendal or Cockermouth. Some travel required to visit sites.

Contract: Established, full time (40hours per work)

About the role:

As we continue to grow, we are looking for Building Surveyors to join our established team based in our Kendal or Cockermouth offices. You'll bring your experience of this sector to be part of Align's multi-discipline workforce, focussed on maintenance work for the variety of projects we work on: from School and Public Buildings to Offices and Grade II refurbishments. Align is part of the traded arm of North Yorkshire County Council, combining private sector drive and motivation with a public sector ethos of giving back.

For this role you will take on significant elements of design, using your knowledge of Auto CAD and working on your own initiative to provide services including those relating to building pathology, design, project management, building surveys and contract administration.

You might be at the start of your Building Surveying career or looking to develop your current experience. At Align you will work closely with other disciplines to deliver projects to our wide range of clients in the beautiful county of Cumbria. You'll also have the opportunity to use the latest technology and be a part of a supportive and friendly team who will encourage you in your professional development.

Qualifications for this role include a RICS accredited Building Surveying degree, ability to demonstrate your knowledge and understanding of professional ethics and have a full UK Driving Licence.
